

NEWS OF NORFOLK.

A VARIETY OF ITEMS OF GENERAL PUBLIC INTEREST.

THE SEABOARD RAILROAD CASE.

Thomas F. Ryan to Ask the Supreme Court of Virginia for a Mandamus—Oyster-Men Leaving Maryland for This State—The Recent Collision.

NORFOLK, VA., October 22.—(Special.) Mr. D. Lawrence Granger, of Norfolk, of counsel for Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, who holds 1,000 shares of stock, equivalent to $100,000, of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, which controls the Seaboard Air-Line, says Mr. Ryan will himself, on November 10th, ask the Virginia Supreme Court for a mandamus to compel President Hoffman, of Baltimore, to allow an examination of the company's books, to support his (Ryan's) charge that President Hoffman, while a member of the firm of Hoffman & Co., sold material to the road at an enormous price, which charge Mr. Hoffman has denied.

BODY RECOVERED.
The body of John Case Pillsbury, the young sailor who was drowned from the steam launch of the United States revenue cutter ship Franklin, last week, while in collision with the tug Pioneer, was recovered this morning, it being brought up by the scoop of the machine dredging the harbor near the navy-yard.

The remains were taken ashore and turned over to Mr. D. V. Gaskins, who prepared the body for shipment to Rockland, Me. Pillsbury was not yet 19 years old.

MOVEMENTS OF OYSTERMEN.
J. H. Colgate and W. D. Sims, two oyster tongs from Maryland, who arrived here this morning, confirm the report that many oystermen are leaving the Crisfield section for Virginia waters, because all the oysters at the former place have been tongued. They say nearly 500 people are on the verge of starvation, and need food and clothing badly. The planting of oysters there this season was very small, hence the present state of affairs.

NAVY-YARD INQUIRY.
No news has been heard at the navy-yard from the report of Lieutenant J. J. Knapp, who has been here for two weeks conducting an investigation in connection with the Labor Board and the employment of men. The telegraphic report in the morning papers that there would be a shake up in the yard on account of the report causes an uneasy feeling there.

Upon application of J. H. Larabee, Judge Martin, in the Court of Law and Chancery, to-day appointed G. Taylor Gwathmey receiver of the King Coffee Company, of this city. Mr. Gwathmey gave bond in the sum of $5,000.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

As the result of the collision here this week between the schooner Georgie Clark and the tug Norfolk, of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railway Company's fleet, that company has entered suit in the United States Court for damages done to the tug, and the schooner has been attached. The suit is for $3,500.

OUR BERRYVILLE BUDGET.

Dr. Hunter McGuire's Lecture—Return of Soldiers—Personals.

BERRYVILLE, VA., October 22.—(Special.)—At the invitation of J. E. B. Stuart Camp, of Confederate Veterans, of this place, Dr. Hunter McGuire, of Richmond, will deliver his well-known lecture on the life and character of General "Stonewall" Jackson, in Winston Hall, Berryville, on Saturday, November 5th. Dr. McGuire's reputation as a lecturer, as well as a distinguished surgeon, is so well established here that a fine audience will doubtless hear him on this occasion. McGuire is at present in the service of the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, is at his home in this place.

Miss Jennie Phillips, of Charlestown, W. Va., who has been visiting Miss Nanette Phillips, of Berryville, returned to her home this week.

Miss Edith Chappell, of Amherst, Va., and Miss Lillie Chappell, of Paris, Va., spent last week as the guest of Mrs. C. E. Wiley.

T. W. Whitaker, who has been visiting friends in Charlottesville, has returned to her home in this place.

Mr. James Murray, of Baltimore, was in Berryville this week visiting friends.

Private Marshall Milton, of Company A, Second Virginia Regiment, has gone to Richmond to be mustered out of the service, with his regiment. He expects to re-enlist and accompany General Lee's army of occupation to Cuba.

Sergeant Buckhorn Smith and Private W. H. H. Moore were in Washington for Woodstock, where they expect to be mustered out of the service, they being members of the company organized at that place.

Miss Eleanor Martin, of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting Miss Annie Moore, at "Cleft Oak."

Rev. M. Cabell Martin, of El Paso, Tex., accompanied by his wife, were the guests of Mr. A. Moore, Jr., this week.

Miss S. J. C. Moore was in Washington this week for several days, in attendance upon the General Convention of the Episcopal Church.

Miss Emma Cole, who had been summing with Mrs. Cole, has returned to her home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. E. M. Weagley, of Frederick City, is visiting Miss Kate S. Neill.

SCOTTSVILLE.

Very Heavy Rains—Personal and General Notes.

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., October 22.—(Special.)—It rained hard here nearly all day yesterday, but the rain culminated last night in one of the hardest downpours we have had this season.

Mr. T. Emmitt Clements, one of Scottsville's most energetic and prosperous citizens has purchased the "Glebe" farm of Mr. Frank Parkinson, and settled his brother, Oliver, of Nelson county, on it. Very soon his aged parents, who now reside in Nelson, will also move there. Mr. Parkinson and wife, who last week moved into town, will, as soon as practicable, go back to England, their native home.

Miss Ellen Boyd left to-day for Nelson county, where she expects to remain several weeks, visiting friends.

Miss Jean Hervey, the popular saleslady at Real Brothers, leaves next week for Richmond, where she will take a position of nurse in the Old Dominion Hospital.

Little Russell Beal, the youngest son of Mr. Jackson Beal, is dangerously ill to-day.

Miss Cora Shepherd, of this place, sister of Professor W. A. Shepherd, opened her school, near Carter's Bridge, this week, with twenty-five scholars.

Mr. Frank Maxey, of Well Water, Buckingham, is here to-day with his family. He is in his 8th year, but is about as active as most men at 64. He expects soon to move to Lynchburg to live.

Mr. Robert Flanagan, of Charlottesville, is here to-day.

Mr. Charles Hoffman, of the Fair Deal Stock Farm, is here to-day.

Mr. John Tompkins, of Warren, and Mr. R. S. Durrett, of Esmont, are in town to-day.

Mr. Richard Briggs, who has been here several weeks, is leaving his mother, will leave for his home, at Orange Courthouse, on Monday.

Messrs. John L. Martin, of Carter's Bridge, and J. T. Morris, of Warren, are here to-day.

The James river at this point is rising rapidly.

Mr. Thomas S. Hall, of Gold Hill, Buckingham, is here to-day.

"I DO MY OWN WORK."

So Says Mrs. Mary Roehlette of Linden, New Jersey, in this Letter to Mrs. Pinkham.

"I was bothered with a flow which would be quite annoying at times, and at others would almost stop. 'I used prescriptions given me by my physician, but the same state of affairs continued. 'After a time I was taken with a flooding, that I was obliged to keep my bed. Finally, in despair, I gave up my doctor, and began taking your medicine, and have certainly been greatly benefited by its use.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has indeed been a friend to me. 'I am now able to do my own work, thanks to your wonderful medicine. I was as near death I believe as I could be, so weak that my pulse scarcely beat and my heart had almost given out. I could not have stood it one week more, I am sure. I never thought I would be so grateful to any medicine.

"I shall use my influence with any one suffering as I did, to have them use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Every woman that is puzzled about her condition should secure the sympathetic advice of a woman who understands. Write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her your ills.

Ingham, came up to-day to visit his daughter, Mrs. Rev. J. R. Daniel.

A LOUISA WEDDING.

Dr. E. L. Sutherland and Miss V. H. Robinson the Contracting Parties.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.)

COLUMBIA, VA., October 21.—The marriage of Miss V. H. Robinson and Dr. Edgar Lyman Sutherland, which took place at "Forest Hill," the home of the bride, in Louisa county, on Wednesday, at 3:30 P. M., was one of the most brilliant of the season.

The ceremony took place on the beautiful and spacious lawn, which had been handsomely decorated with flowers, evergreens, and Japanese lanterns. The bride wore a large floral veil, and was suspended from an arch of evergreens. Dr. George H. Chead, of Fork Union, performed the ceremony. Miss Addie Flynn, of Danville, played the piano, and as the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth, the bridal party emerged from the parlors, and approached the altar.

The attendants were as follows: Miss Susie Cowell, of North Carolina, maid of honor, who was attired in pink organdie and satin ribbons. Mr. C. E. Smith, of the University of Virginia, was best man. Miss Mary Robinson, sister of the bride, with Dr. C. E. Smith, of Columbia University.

Miss Irma Robinson, sister of the bride, with Mr. Sutherland, of Hillsville, Miss Lucy Shepherd, of Columbia, with Mr. Ernest Burgess, of Scottsville. Miss Maude Shepherd, of Columbia, with Mr. Lewis Robinson, of the Newport News Military Academy.

Miss Carrie Snead, of Fork Union, with Mr. J. I. Hoffmayer, of the University of Virginia. Miss Ethel Burgess, of Scottsville, with Mr. Claude Pettit, of Palmyra.

Little Misses Emma and Mary Gooch preceded the bride, bearing silver candlesticks. The bride was attired in white organdie with satin and chiffon trimmings, conventional veil, and orange blossoms, and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore pink and white organdie gowns and carried bouquets of white zephyrs.

The spacious parlors and halls were decorated profusely with flowers and evergreens.

After the ceremony a typical Virginia supper was served. The tables were presided over by Mrs. James A. Shepherd, of Columbia, and Mrs. Clarence W. Robinson, of Newport News. The presents were numerous, useful, and beautiful.

Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland left for Charlottesville at 11 o'clock, and left on the 1:15 train for Hillsville, where they were given a reception at the home of the groom.

Lynchings in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, KY., October 22.—A special to the Times from Tompkinsville, Ky., says: News has reached here of the lynching of Arch Baur (colored), who committed an assault on, and attempted murder, Annie Morrison, the oldest daughter of Henry Morrison, a prominent farmer of Cumberland county.

The crime was committed at the Morrison home, yesterday evening about 3 o'clock. Miss Morrison received wounds that may prove fatal.

When the neighbors learned of the crime, they pursued the negro with bloodhounds and captured him in a small cabin within a mile of where the deed was committed.

When they entered, the negro begged for mercy, but a noose in a rope that was carried, was quickly thrown about his neck, and he was dragged, more dead than alive, to the woods where the rope was tossed over the limb of a tree and he was hauled into the air.

The lynchers left the body and disappeared. Eight bullet-holes were found in the body this morning. The remains were buried by Baur's relatives.

"Summer Rest."

(For the Dispatch.)

This is the name of a co-operative summer resort for self-supporting women and girls of Richmond, Va. It was started in July, 1886, by members of St. Andrew's Young Ladies' Guild, of Richmond, composed almost entirely of self-supporting girls. Although owned by Episcopalians and members of the smallest church in the city, it is open to all of whatever creed, provided they are respectable and are self-supporting. "The Rest" is situated 15 miles from Richmond, in the mountains of Virginia, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. It lies on the slope of the Blue Ridge, and commands a wide and beautiful view of spurs of the same mountains. The climate is delightful, and the farm of seventy acres yields fruit and vegetables.

A tired worker can go there and remain two weeks for $5.50, including travelling expenses and baggage. The place is run by the president of St. Andrew's Guild, who, together with her husband, gives her services free, and it is more like an old Virginia home than anything else.

There is no Board of Directors, no rules, no cut-and-dried red tape; only a free, happy, healthy country home. The house is far too small, holding only fourteen with great crowding.

ONE OF THE GUILD.

On November 30, at 5 P. M., "a character party" for the benefit of this good cause will be given at St. Andrew's parish buildings. All who want a pleasant time and to help a good work, in which all Richmond should be interested, will please come.

The President at Home Again.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—President McKinley returned to Washington at 2:30 P. M. to-day, from his western trip.

NEWS OF SATURDAY GATHERED ON THE SOUTH SIDE.

TO HAVE SPEAKING TO-MORROW NIGHT

Congressmen Lamb and Jones to Address Manchester Voters—A Good Turnout Expected—Suit for $10,000 Against R. & M. Railway Co.

Although, as every one knows, very little interest has been taken this year in politics in any part of Virginia, and in Manchester no more than anywhere else, prospects bid fair for a good turnout of voters and the ladies at Leader Hall to-morrow night, when Hon. W. A. Jones, congressman from the First District, and Hon. John Lamb, the Third's representative, will make addresses.

Mr. Jones comes to Richmond from Washington Monday, and will be the guest of Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, State chairman.

The programme was that Chairman D. L. Toney, of the City Committee, present H. A. Maurice, the Mayor, who in turn would introduce the speakers. However, Mayor Maurice has been called from the city, and will not be able to get back by that time.

Captain Lamb will be the first speaker. Thus, Mr. Jones will make the closing address. Neither speaker needs an introduction to an East Virginia audience, and both are forceful and interesting speakers, though in different styles. Captain Lamb is vigorous in gesture and delivery, oftentimes rapid and eloquent; Mr. Jones calm, matter of fact, and deeply in earnest, striking blows with the arm of a giant, and making each one tell.

The meeting will be promptly at 8 o'clock by Captain Lamb's speech. A cordial invitation has been extended by the City Central Committee to ladies of the city to be present, and seats will be reserved for them.

MRS. MOXLEY SUES FOR $10,000.

An interesting damage suit will be called in the Hustings Court of this city on Thursday, in which C. Moxley sues the Richmond and Manchester Railway Company for $10,000, to recover damages alleged to have been sustained some months ago, when a car of the railway collided with plaintiff's carriage and demolished it. In the carriage were also Mrs. F. U. Moxley, Miss Mattie Hill, and Mr. George W. Butler. These have also entered suits, but for smaller sums. Mr. Charles L. Page, of this city, is attorney for the plaintiffs.

A colored man, who gave his name as William McCargo, was arrested yesterday morning by Policeman Smith, on complaint of W. J. Dobbins, a saloon-keeper at Fourth and Hull streets, that he tried to pass a counterfeit dollar on him. It is said that the man went into the store, ordered some whiskey, and tendered the suspicious dollar in payment. The saloon-keeper saw at once that the money was but an imitation, and thinking the negro's intentions none of the best, 'phoned for an officer. Policeman Smith responded, and after a short run succeeded in catching the man.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

Mr. C. A. Raines left yesterday for Danville to visit friends and relatives. Ex-Councilman H. C. Nelson, who has been quite ill, is better, and able to be on the street.

Miss Belle Brooks has returned to her home, in Swansboro, from a visit to friends in Columbia, S. C.

The Street Committee has been called to meet in the City Engineer's office, Room 17, Leader building, for Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. A. S. Wright, treasurer of New South County, Jr. O. U. A. M., paid to Mrs. James Higgins yesterday morning the sum of $25, the death benefit of her husband.

Rev. A. J. Barton will preach at the Bainbridge-St. Baptist church this morning and Dr. R. H. Pitt at night. Rev. Dr. L. R. Thornhill, the pastor, is absent from town.

Mrs. W. R. Smith and children, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. V. Browder, has gone to Selma, N. C., to make it their future home.

The Baptist Young People's Union of Bainbridge-St. Baptist church, will meet at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and it is expected that Mr. Hill Montague, president of the Richmond and Manchester union, will be present and speak.

It is said that the Standard Spike-Mills, at the foot of Decatur street, which have been idle about two months, will resume work to-morrow week. This plant employs about 100 skilled workmen, and is a great benefactor of both Richmond and Manchester, where the employees and their families live.

The Catholic Bazaar closed last night with a grand cake-walk, which was very amusing, and witnessed by a large number of people. The ladies have done very well in the effort to get money towards their church building fund.

HAMPTEN-SIDNEY VS. COLLEGE.

Hot Foot-Ball Contest to Take Place Tuesday—Both in Good Trim.

The foot-ball game between the Richmond College and Hampton-Sidney teams, which was postponed from yesterday, on account of wet grounds, will be played at the Broad-Street Park Tuesday afternoon.

The Hampton-Sidney pigskin chasers will arrive in this city by Monday night's train. While here they will be quartered at the New Ford's Hotel.

On Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, they will rally forth in canvas coats-of-mail and leather war-harness, to do battle with the team of Richmond College.

Foot-ball has become a feature of college athletics, and has come to stay. Last year's attempted legislation has little weight with enthusiasts of the game, and the coming season will show by the crowds that attend the intercollegiate and interstate contests that the game has lost none of its popularity. Much of the heavy play has been cut out by recent ruling and the kicking game has come into vogue.

All foot-ball interest centres in the Thanksgiving game played in this city between the Virginians and Tarheels. Last year's game was close, and the "Varsity men" will have to get themselves in good form, for though the North Carolinians say nothing, they must be sawn' wood.

Tuesday's game promises to be close and exciting. The "Spiders" have played only one game so far, that one being with Randolph-Macon, which resulted in their favor by a score of 15 to 0. Every afternoon the "scrub" gives the college a good, hard practice, and thus the men are kept in good condition. Under the able direction of the coaches, notable improvements have been made in the last week.

Frazer has returned to college and is in his uniform every day. He was one of last year's stars, and strives to maintain his reputation as a good line-plunger and runner through a broken field. Another old man lately returned, is Charley Scott, who played sub-end and half on last year's team, and is an applicant for re-admission. Thomas, the big guard, is regularly in the game, and is giving Duke much trouble about holding his position as right guard.

Captain Lankford's work at half, in the Randolph-Macon game was a source of gratification to his many admirers. He says that his team, though not heavy, are quick, and on this 'count he hopes to make his biggest game. Old "Billy" Powell, a sure tackle and fast runner, holds his place in the line against all comers.

Every evening sees twenty-five or thirty students hard at work on the field and a large crowd of spectators to all of lines cheering the vain efforts of the "scrub."

The weakness in kicking has been remedied to a great degree by changes in the formation, and Bagby, at quarter, is getting the ball well into the stomachs of the halves, thus avoiding fumbling, one of the costliest things a team can indulge in.

The line-up for Tuesday's game will, with some slight changes, be as follows:

Richmond.	Position.	Hampten-Sidney.
Cammack.....	centre	Green.
Duke.....	right guard	Kemper.
Watson.....	right tackle	Lalng.
Robinson.....	right end	Goode.
Bagby or Ellyson.....	quarter back	(Captain)
		Kuykendall.
Blorton or Frazer.....	left half-back
		Fugate or Simpson.
Lankford (Capt.).....	right half-back	Gilliam.
McNell.....	full back	Caldwell.

The college has several promising "scrubs" who may have a trial in Tuesday's game. The regular substitutes are Scott, Moore, Tabb, Smith, and Broadus. Sam Stone is unwell and will not be in the game.

Hampten-Sidney players are, with few exceptions, new men, only three having played in last year's game—Somerville, Goode, and Osborne.

Captain Kuykendall was a star player on the 1887 team, and made first team this season without any trouble, being elected captain. Green, at centre, is a Maine man, and is holding his position in a very acceptable manner. Fugate and Simpson are contesting for the position of left half-back.

HENRICO COUNTY NEWS.

Negro Fined for Trying to Get Whiskey to Jail-Birds.

"Squire Lewis, of the county, held court yesterday morning, having as his sole prisoner W. H. Ellis, a colored man.

Ellis was seen by Mr. Talman to attempt to carry a bottle of whiskey to some inmates of the jail and promptly placed him under arrest. He was fined $5, which he could not pay.

The School Trustees of Varina District met at the court house yesterday, and transacted the routine business before them and paid off the teachers of their district.

The Democratic Committee of the county met also at 11 o'clock, and informally discussed the condition of the county, from a political point of view.

What I Know

About Pianos?

The average customer would answer such a query by saying "Very little. The person that can play would advise with some dealer in standard Pianos who does a reputable business. By all means purchase for durability and true quality. Try RAMOS. Avoid the five-dollars-a-month stores. Price counts and quality counts. Do not agree to pay $400 for a $200 Piano because the time of final settlement is strung out for five or ten years. We are frank. We can sell better PIANOS than any store in Richmond and at lower prices. Our terms are easy. We do sell "on time," but not on an "eternity plan." Cash buyers always call on us first, and nine times out of ten they come back to us. Remember our store is on Broad street, between First and Second streets.
